Find the names of these pioneers of flight. After all of the names are found, the letters that are not used will reveal a hidden message!

Bessie Coleman — A female barnstormer
Chuck Yeager — broke the sound barrier
Tuskegee Airmen — Colonel Benjamin Davis, Jr. was their commander
Otto Lilienthal — designed a glider that could fly for long distances
George Cayley — designed gliders
Amelia Earhart — first to fly solo across the Pacific from Honolulu to California
Jeana Yeager — first to fly around the world without landing or refueling
Charles Lindbergh — flew the first non-stop flight between New York and Paris
Octave Chanute — gave the Wright Brothers advice
Leonardo Da Vinci — his designs showed how man could fly
Montgolfier Brothers — Invented of the first hot air balloon
Samuel Langley — invented the Aerodrome
Hero — made the first steam engine
Wiley Post — took off in the Winnie Mae
Dick Rutan — Yeager’s copilot